

City of Rhinelander, Wisconsin City Administrator

City Administrator, Rhinelander, Wisconsin (pop. 7,800, daytime pop. 20,000+) Located in the heart of Wisconsin's Northwoods, Rhinelander is the county seat of Oneida County and the retail hub of the region. The city has a strong business community, an enviable quality of life and easy access to an abundance of natural resources.

Rhinelander is a bountiful blend of old traditions and contemporary living. With the introduction of a rail line in the 1880s, Rhinelander became, and still is today, a center of commerce for northern Wisconsin and Upper Michigan. Coupled with an incomparable four-season lifestyle – there are 232 lakes within 15 minutes of downtown Rhinelander – residents and visitors enjoy lush green summers, spectacular fall colors, and exceptional winter activities.

The Common Council is seeking an experienced, steady, and strategic thinking professional. Strong leadership and communication skills are a must. A record of visibility in the community, proven financial/analytical and human resources skills are necessary. Experience in community and economic development is a plus. A full-service city, Rhinelander has a workforce of approximately 140 including 90 full-time employees, an $18 million budget (all funds), and is rated AA.

Candidates must have:

- A minimum of a BA in public or business administration; a Master's degree in public administration, business administration or other advanced executive level training is ideal.
- Five or more years of increasingly responsible municipal executive-level experience is required; Assistant administrator experience in a larger community will also be considered.
- Proven managerial, interpersonal, and leadership skills to direct a customer-oriented organization.
- Relationship-building and collaboration skills and an ability to work with a variety of stakeholders.

Starting salary range for the position is $87,000 – $95,000 +/- DOQ. Excellent benefit package.
